DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-9 in the reply filed on 4/11/2008 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 2-3 recites the limitation "the rail edge" in line 6 of claim 2 and line 2 of claim 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "said hook means" in line 3, and depends on either claim 3 or claim 4. A "hook means" is only claimed in claim 4 and is not a limitation in claim 3.

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: In line 3 "top skins" should be changed to ---top skin's---. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 6 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from another multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, claim 6 has not been further treated on the merits.

Claim 7 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, claim 7, along with further dependent claims 8 and 9, have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant Admitted Prior Art (herein designated as “AAPA”).

1. AAPA teaches all the limitation of claim 1, including a method of assembling a 2-piece door skin comprising a bottom skin and a top skin wherein each of the bottom and top skin's longitudinal edges have been bent and folded to complementarily hem each other in an interlocking manner to form a seam (see Specification page 1 lines 28-33 and page 2 lines 1-12), the method including:

folding the ends of the bent portion of the bottom skin outwardly to form a downward flange which is flush (see Specification page 1 lines 28-33 to page 2 lines 1-2);

folding the ends of the bent portion of the top skin inwardly to form an upward flange aligned with the corresponding edges of the bottom skin (see Specification page 2 lines 4-12);

pushing the top skin to insert said top skin's folded edge into the bottom skin's corresponding folded edge to form said interlocking seam and thus the door edge (see Specification page 2 lines 14-18).

AAPA teaches the structure and limitation of claim 1 except for the holding steps, including holding the bottom skin in an upwardly open pan manner and holding the top skin in an inverted pan manner.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to assemble the top and bottom door skins of AAPA by having the bottom skin in an upwardly open pan manner and the top skin in an inverted pan manner because it would ease installation as the bottom skin has more material than the top skin and the lighter top skin is easier to handle by an individual (see Figure 1 where the bottom skin has protrusion 13 which provides additional weight).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art fails to teach the claimed method for assembling a 2-piece door skin comprising a protruding plate provided with eyelets welded to the inside of the top skin.

Claims 2-3 and 5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
